

Thank you for your interest in working with me. I'd like to know more about you: who you are and what outcomes you're seeking from a coaching engagement with me.

Email your answers to me at admin@jkellyhoey.co and I'll schedule an exploratory call to review and discuss working together

- What's your full name? What name do you like to be called? (i.e. Ignore the "J", I go by my second name of Kelly).

- How can I reach you?

Geographically speaking, what time zone are you in?

Why are you looking for a coach?

Why do you think I will be a good coach for you? (No, this is not an ego question!)

Any specific outcomes or insights you're seeking by working with me?
